Investment Objective Strategy One Fund

Strategy One Fund has a three to five year investment horizon. The Fund invests in a mixture of stocks, bonds and funds that are diversified amongst themselves. The investment allocation has two main characteristics: firstly, allocation is fairly dynamic among asset classes in an attempt to capture opportunities that emerge periodically. The second feature is a clear preference to fund managers that have been known to the team for many years. Due to the longstanding relationship with some of these managers and the economies of scale, Strategy One Fund has an opportunity to invest in funds and shareclasses that are not open to most private investors, saving the unit holder considerable costs.

* The track record prior to the launch of the fund (May 1, 2012) relates to the unaudited performance of the total personal portfolio of Hein Jurgens, drawn from historical records. The performance is net of brokerage and custody fees as they were charged. The performance does not take Investment Fund costs into account. This historical track record is for illustration purposes only. The fund performance is based on the returns of the initial series A.

Monthly comment

It looked like the year-end rally on the stock market would continue in November. Both the MSCI World Index and leading European and American indices reached new highs during the month. However, the discovery of the new Omicron variant in the last week of November brought an abrupt end to the positive trend. The MSCI Developed World Index in dollars fell -2.3% and European markets were hit harder as the DAX lost -3.8% and the EuroStoxx 50 -4.3%. Yields on 10-year US Treasuries also turned in the last week of November and ended the month 10 basis points lower at 1.45%.

Your fund managed to limit losses despite the high exposure to European equities. Consumer related stocks suffered with Heineken, Vinci, Nomad and Mercado Libre falling more than 8%. In terms of impact on your fund, losses by Adelphi, Third Point, Jo Hambro and China Special Sits (all down more than 3%), had a greater impact due to their weighting. Losses in the end proved minor due to strong performance from Syncona (+7%) as they announced a string of deals. LondonMetric announced a very successful share placing in which we participated (+3.5%). Other noticeable performance came from Pictet Water and our Gold position.

In the coming months, the two important issues to watch are inflation and the development of Omicron. If Omicron proves less lethal than its predecessors, it will ultimately be another stimulus for financial markets. The impact of inflation will be felt very differently for various economic blocks in the coming months, as every "block" has its own dynamics.
