Notes to the semi-annual financial statements

General information

FMO Privium Impact Fund (the Fund) was constituted on 26 February 2016 and commenced operations on 20 June 2016.

The targeted return net of fees is expected to be between 2 and 4 percent per annum, over a multi-year cycle, while generating impact. In addition to achieving the Target Return, the Fund aims to make socially and environmentally responsible investments, hereby aiming to provide providing investors with an attractive financial return while at the same time endeavoring to create Impact in Developing and Emerging Economies. The Fund will be able to co-invest in both existing and new loans (to be) provided by FMO to its clients. The co-investments of the Fund will be structured as participations in such loans provided by FMO. The loans will include senior and subordinated loans.

Since the Fund has making sustainable investments as its objective in the context of the Sustainable Finance Disclosure Regulation (SFDR), the Fund is classified as an Article 9 Fund. Additional SFDR related disclosure regarding Article 9 can be found in the Prospectus of the Fund.

The Fund is a fund for joint account ('fonds voor gemene rekening') organised and established under the laws of The Netherlands. The Fund is under Dutch law not a legal entity (rechtspersoon) nor a partnership, commercial partnership or limited partnership (maatschap, vennootschap onder firma or commanditaire vennootschap), but a contractual arrangement sui generis between the AIFM, the Legal Owner and each of the Unitholders separately, governing the assets and liabilities acquired or assumed by the Legal Owner for the account and risk of the Unitholders.

The Fund has its principal offices at the offices of the AIFM at Symphony Towers 26/F, Gustav Mahlerplein 3, 1082 MS Amsterdam, The Netherlands.

The Fund is established by the adoption of its Terms and Conditions by agreement between the AIFM and the Legal Owner and the subsequent admission of the first Unitholder, being the Launch Date.

The Fund is managed by the AIFM. The assets, rights and obligations of the Fund is held by the Legal Owner. The Unitholders invests in the Fund as participants (participanten) and acquires Units in the Fund.

The semi-annual report has not been audited by an independent auditor.

The Fund Manager authorized these semi-annual financial statements for issue 24 August 2026.

Accounting policies

The semi-annual financial statements are prepared in accordance with Part 9, Book 2 of the Dutch Civil Code and the Dutch Act on Financial Supervision ('Wet op het financieel toezicht') and covers the period from 1 January 2026 through 30 June 2026.

The accounting principles used to prepare this semi-annual financial statements 2026 are the same as the accounting principles used for the 2025 annual financial statements.

Certain dividend and interest income received by the Fund may be subject to withholding tax imposed in the country of origin.

14. Related parties

Parties are considered to be related if one party has the ability to control the other party or exercise significant influence over the other party making financial or operational decisions.

All services rendered by the AIFM therefore qualify as related party transactions. The fees of the AIFM are disclosed in note 8.

The Privium Sustainable Impact Fund maintains an investment in Class A of the FMO Privium Impact Fund. Class A has been created to make sure that fund of funds managed by the AIFM (such as the Privium Sustainable Impact Fund) can invest in this Fund without Privium making money on both sides. The annual Management Fee for this separate share class will be 0.90 per cent. of the Net Asset Value of Class A, excluding (i.e. before deduction of) the accrued Management Fee, which will be paid in full by the AIFM to the Delegate, subject to any VAT (if applicable).

Class F Units will only be issued to persons that are employees of FMO and its subsidiaries and are living in the Netherlands at the time of such issue. Any such transactions will be at arm´s length. In deviation other Share Classes of the Fund redemptions can only take place on a monthly with at least a six (6) months' notice period.

15. Core business and delegation

The following key task have been delegated by the Fund Manager:

Administration
The administration has been delegation to Bolder Fund Services (Netherlands) B.V, who carries out the administration of the Fund, including the processing of all investment transactions, processing of revenues and expenses and the preparation of the NAV. It also states, under the responsibility of the AIFM, the interim report and the financial statements of the Fund. For information on the fees of the Administrator refer to note 9.

Investment advisor
FMO is the investment Management B.V. for the loan investments of FMO Privium Impact Fund. For information on the fees of the Administrator refer to note 8.

Related party transactions
FMO Investment Management B.V., the Investment Advisor/Delegate, is a subsidiary of FMO N.V. The fund is co-investing in loans that have been provided by FMO N.V. to its clients. The loans include senior and subordinated loans. FMO N.V. remains the lender of record. FMO Investment Management B.V. is making loan recommendations to the Fund Manager regarding which loans to include the portfolio of the FMO Privium Impact Fund. FMO Investment Management B.V. has a clear allocation policy. This allocation policy provides a description of the allocation of FMO N.V. deal flow to investment funds, like the FMO Privium Impact Fund, to which FMO Investment Management B.V. provides investment advice.

16. Events after balance sheet date

Globally there are several Geopolitical conflicts pending. The outcomes are uncertain and hard to predict. Further escalation of the individual conflicts are expected to dampen global growth. This might have an impact on the performance of the Fund.

No other material events occurred after the balance sheet date that could influence the transparency of the financial statements.

Amsterdam, 24 August 2026
