What are the risks and what would I get in return?

Risk indicator

The risk indicator assumes you keep the product for 5 years. The actual risk can vary significantly if you cash in at an early stage and you may get back less. You may not be able to easily sell (terminate) the product, or you may have to sell (terminate) at a price that has a significant effect on how much you get back.

The summary risk indicator is a guide to the level of risk of this product compared to other products. It shows how likely it is that the product will lose money because of movements in the markets or because we are not able to pay you. We have classified this product as 5 out of 7, which is a medium to high class. This rates the potential losses from future performance at a medium to high level. The possibility the fund cannot pay you back due to poor market conditions is therefore indicated as medium-large. This product does not include any protection from future market performance so you could lose some or all of your investment. If we are not able to pay you what is owed, you could lose your entire investment.

Performance scenarios

What you get will vary depending on how the market performs and how long you keep the investment. The scenarios are illustration based on historical performance and certain assumptions. The stress scenario shows what you might get back in extreme market circumstances, and it does not take into account the situation where we are not able to pay you. The markets might develop very differently in the future compared to the past.

Favorable scenario: This type of scenario occurred for an investment between March 2021 and December 2021.

The amounts shown include all costs of the product itself, (where applicable) but may not include all costs you pay to your adviser or distributor/and include the costs of your adviser or distributor. The amounts do not take into account your personal tax situation, which may also affect how much you get back. The stress scenario shows what you could get in return in extreme market conditions. If no product-specific information is available to determine the above-mentioned scenarios, the historical performance of a comparable product will be used.

What happens if Privium Fund Management B.V. is unable to pay out?

The Fund's assets are held separately from Privium Fund Management B.V. A pay-out of the product's assets is thus not affected by the financial position or potential default of Privium Fund Management B.V.

What are the costs?

The person selling you, or advising you, about this product may charge you other costs. If so, this person will provide you with information about these costs and show you the impact that all costs will have on your investment over time.

Costs overtime

The tables show the amounts taken out of your investment to cover different types of costs. These amounts vary according to how much you invest, how long you hold the product and how well the product performs. The amounts shown here are illustrations based on an example of an investment amount and various possible investment periods. We assume that:

- The return of your investment in over the first year is equal to 0%. For other holding periods, we assume that the product performs as indicated in the moderate scenario, and
- €10.000 is invested.

	If you sell after:
	1 year	3 years	5 years
Total costs	€138	€460	€831
Impact of the costs per year	1,38%	1,51%	1,61%

(*) This illustrates how costs will decrease your returns every year during the holding period. For example, the table shows that if you would exit after the recommended holding period, your average annual return is estimated to be 3,80% before charges and 2,33% after charges.
